Block Dimensions (Finished): 9" x 17"

This block is of The Fairy, which was an item that Link could use to replenish his health or even bring himself back from death within the Zelda games. Throughout the game, Link would battle his enemies and often lose his health, sometimes even dying to these foes. If Link came across a fairy within the land, he could use it to replenish his health fully. If Link captured a fairy and kept it in his backpack, he could bring himself back from death should he die in combat.
